

Bold Women for God

Each woman different, each with different needs and different personalities. But the same spirit of obedience and faith led them on to joy, peace, salvation, and...a place in making history.

1. Mary and Martha (Luke 10:38-42) story available

Where does true boldness begin? It must begin with sitting at his feet...

2. Rahab (Joshua 2:1-16, 23;6:17-25) story available

Her audacious request resulted in her and her family's salvation, and a place in Israel's redemptive history...

3. Deborah and Jael (Judges 4:1-24; 5:24, 31) story available

Two women who simply obeyed---and resulted in a nation saved.

4. Abigail (1 Samuel 25:1-41) story available

She took matters into her own hands, and saved the reputation of the King.

5. Mary (Matthew 1:19-21, 24-25; Luke 1:26-30, 34-39, 46-50, 56; Luke 2:21-22, 25, 28, 30-40) story available

She risked shame, personal sorrow, and disgrace to obey God and be a vessel for the working out of his redemptive plan.

6. Woman washing Jesus' feet (Luke 7:36-50) story available

She boldly proclaimed what Jesus had done for her. She extravagantly declared her love for him...and her story has inspired generations...

7. Aquila and Priscilla (Acts 18) story available

A husband and wife working together to plant and grow churches in unreached areas of the world...she was willing to go anywhere and do anything for the sake of the Gospel...
